

NORWALK

A3 Today is the annual Great American Smokeout

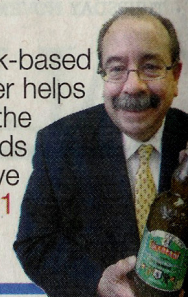

C1 Stephenie Meyer's vampire tale, "Twilight," hits theaters Friday

The Hour

Serving Norwalk, Weston, Westport, Wilton and Stamford

John Travolta goes to the dogs as the voice of Disney's new animated feature hero, "Bolt," only online at www.thehour.com

Norwalk-based importer helps set the standards for olive oil, D1

THE INDEPENDENT VOICE OF OUR COMMUNITY FOR 137 YEARS

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 2008

Vol. 137 No. 325

www.thehour.com

50

A journey of 1,000 miles starts with one step

Hope of peace keeps Norwalker moving forward

NORWALK

By ROBERT KOCH
Hour Staff Writer

A penchant for prayer and hope for world peace turned into a nearly 1,000-mile walk for Norwalk resident Al Forte.

On Oct. 4, Forte finished walking from Yankee Stadium to Chicago, a journey that took him through small towns, big cities and a few baseball parks to urge Americans to pray for peace.

Hour photo / MATTHEW VINCI

see WALKER, A8

Norwalk resident Al Forte walked from Yankee Stadium to Chicago to "spread the message of praying for peace."